

Columbia Museum of Art

Mac Arthur Goodwin Award

Purpose: To honor individuals who foster progress in visual arts education through the successful utilization of community arts resources. To create a greater awareness of the arts resources such as museums and arts centers within South Carolina. To encourage collaboration among community organizations that implement visual arts programming.

Criteria for Nomination

All nominees must...

- Be a South Carolina resident currently active in the program for which they have been nominated.
- Demonstrate a sustained commitment to arts education through service and direct involvement with arts programming.
- Demonstrate effectiveness by facilitating programs, collaborations and initiatives that are regarded as successful and innovative by their peers as well as their constituents.
- Demonstrate a vision for visual arts education that involves partnership and collaboration between two or more groups.

Procedures

Deadline for Nominations: April 22, 2011

The following materials must be submitted on the nominee's behalf:

- Nominator's Statement: A one to two page, typewritten narrative that summarizes the accomplishments of the nominee as they relate to a current program or project.
- Letters of Recommendation: Three letters of recommendation must be submitted. Include one letter written by a constituent, such as a parent, guardian or program participant.
- A summary vitae/resume for the nominee (limit: 3 pages)

Self-nominations will not be accepted.

The winner will be notified no later than May 6, 2011. A formal presentation of the award will occur during the Columbia Museum of Art's Annual Meeting at noon on Thursday, May 19, 2011.

All nominations and inquiries should be addressed to:

Ali Borchardt, Director of Education, Columbia Museum of Art, P.O. Box 2068, Columbia, SC 29202